A message from our Spiritual Leader,
Cantor Shoshana Brown

In the Wake of the Storms...

As I write this column, my laptop sits on a purple metal-wicker café table, looking out at a long hedge of rose-tinged late-blooming rhododendrons (at the Sweet Berry Farm in Middletown, RI – a place we enjoyed on our August TBE hiking outing). My wrought-iron chair is also purple, and it rocks! Across the way I see corn in the field, and to my right are peach and apple trees, with many apples already on the ground. It is a perfect late summer-early fall afternoon in Southern New England, and I feel blessed to live in an area where such places exist so close by (later, I will treat myself to a walk at the Sachuest Wildlife Refuge). Sometimes I have to take my “office” outdoors, away from the phone, from email, from all the hundreds of other tasks that demand my attention – especially now, with so much on my mind.

By the time you read these words, the High Holy Days will be over (although we will linger a while in the holiness of Sukkot). But as I write today, Rosh Hashanah is about 10 days away; I am anxious to review the prayers, their melodies and some of the less-familiar Hebrew texts that I encounter solely at this time of year. But like many of you, I am sure, I have Harvey and Irma, Houston and Florida, Barbuda and all the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico and Havana on my mind...I feel so privileged to be sitting here in safety, surrounded by beauty. I am not rich, but I am able to afford iced coffee and a muffin at the café here, and I need not worry about going home to a house, or a whole town, that no longer exists. I try to imagine what that is like, and I can only think that it must be similar to the aftermath of a devastating war.

Some congregants have asked if the TBE community should collect bottled water, canned goods or diapers to send to these storm victims, but a little research indicates that relief agencies are much happier to receive monetary donations, which are much easier for them to make use of to fit the needs of particular communities. And by this time, I am sure that all of us have given what we could to one or more of these agencies, you do not need your community or clergy to urge you to do it. But there is something that I, not as one of your spiritual leaders, but simply as a fellow human being on the Planet Earth, do want to urge you to do: to give some thought to what is meant in the Creation Story in Genesis, when God says to the first human couple, “...rule over the fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, and over all living things that creep on the earth” (Gen. 1:28).

All my life, this passage of Scripture never made any sense to me: we cannot “herd” fish, nor can we “corral” wild birds. While you might say that we “rule” cattle or other domesticated animals, there is no way that we puny humans can “rule” over the creatures of the sea or the sky. In addition to not understanding it, I did not like what seemed to be the import of this passage – that homo sapiens as a species were meant by God to exploit the rest of creation, that all the rest of creation was made for us! Really?? So it is just fine if we destroy the habitat of certain species, or drive them to extinction, since they were made for us?

What a strange thing for the Torah to say, especially since peoples in ancient times did not have the technology to even come close to having such mastery over the seas or the skies! But now it is beginning to make sense to me. The seas and the skies are exactly what our last 100 years of burning fossil fuels and pursuing greater and greater technologies, and greater and greater luxuries in our lives have impacted. We have filled the skies with particulates and gases that have trapped heat near the earth; we have made the earth warmer, we have contributed to warmer seas, the warmer seas make hurricanes, tropical storms and tornadoes more likely; other areas get hotter and drier, experiencing more wildfires, which once again fill the air with smoke and ash...and who suffers first for this “rule” of ours but the “fish of the sea” and the “birds of the sky”?

If I could re-phrase God’s speech, I would have the Creator say: “Behold all I have created; it is magnificent, but vulnerable. You human creatures have the power to protect it and nurture it. You also have the power to destroy it. If you want to know how you are doing, pay particular attention to those creatures that do not live alongside you like cattle or sheep: look to the birds of the air and the fish of the sea. If they are healthy and thriving, you will know that you are doing a good job as Creation’s guardians; if they are ailing or disappearing, then you will know that it is time to examine your way of living upon the Earth.”

Could this be what the Torah meant? It is my fervent hope that this will be the year that all humanity might examine its way of living upon the Earth, and that we might change course before more watery catastrophes, more wildfires, before more and more sea ice melts, before it is too late – for the sake of our fellow humans, for the sake of our children and grandchildren, for the sake of the “birds of the air and the fish of the seas” who have no say in the matter.

Wishing you a healthy, purposeful, and sweet New Year,

Cantor Shoshana Brown

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As I write this column, between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, I am once again feeling fortunate that I am a part of our very special Jewish community. Each year the High Holidays bring me back to my roots, through the special services in our beautiful sanctuary, the comraderie, seeing everyone doing their part to make all of the events happen and listening to the music and traditional Hebrew prayers. Thank you to Rabbi Mark and Cantor Shoshana, all those who took part in the services, Libby and Sisterhood for all they do, Ann Chavenson and everyone who made donations to the Flower Fund (the flowers were gorgeous this year), George Haire and Arleen Bor for getting the sanctuary ready, Carlton Smith for his vigilance and Marie Twomey and Judy Morgenstern for all they do. I would also like to personally thank those who volunteered as ushers - Susan Bender, Linda Monchik, Ken Littman and Eugene O'Brien. It was truly a mitzvah.

I must also thank everyone for my special breakfast on September 10th. I'm not sure I deserved it, but I was humbled by all those who turned out on a beautiful Sunday morning, as well as those who worked hard to make it happen. As I understand it, Carl and Irma Feldman had the idea (and they came home a week early to attend), and their daughter, Gail Wilkinson, coordinated with Libby Cohen, who had help from Sheila Lash, Ann Chavenson and Renee Lipson. Once again George gave up a Sunday morning to work the event, along with Arleen Bor. To top it off Libby, Bill Chebot, Cantor Shoshana and Marie all had such nice things to say -- I just can't thank you all enough.

As I mentioned at the breakfast, we will be hosting a gala event in the spring to raise money for our sister synagogue, Sahar Hassamain in Ponta Delgada, Azores. We are putting together the details now, so look for more information here in future months. We hope to give away a pair of airline tickets to visit the synagogue!

Lastly, I would like to thank Harriet (Solotist) Grunberg for donating a gorgeous granite washing station and bench to our cemetery in memory of her beloved mother, Lena M. Solotist, and her beloved grandparents, Rose and Jacob Dondis, on behalf of her late sister, Fran Levien and herself. Thanks, too, to our cemetery superintendent, Tommy Fillipovich, for all he did to make this project happen. It is a stunning addition to our cemetery, so be sure to look for it on your next visit. Thank you Harriet, for your generosity and all that you do for Temple Beth El.

Steve Silverman
President

Sisterhood President's Message

L'Shanah Tovah folks! As the year 5778 begins, we are looking forward to a happy, healthy and prosperous new year. This is my wish for all of you.

September has been busy here at Temple Beth El. For starters, on Sunday, September 10th we honored our Temple president, Steve Silverman, at a special breakfast. It was well attended, which shows how much we appreciate all he has done, and continues to do, for our Temple. I want to thank the following people who helped me to make this possible: Norm and Anita Bolski, Ann Chavenson, Irma Feldman, Hannah Evans, George Haire, Sheila Lash, Renee Lipson, Judy Morgenstern, Beverly Solup, Marie Twomey and Gail Wilkinson. It takes the work of many people to make these events a success.

Of course, we have all been busy with our holiday preparations. As I prepare this column, Rabbi Mark and Cantor Shoshana are spending their time writing their holiday sermons and setting up the order of the various services. I hope everyone shows their support by attending these holiday services.

So until next month, stay safe.

Libby Cohen
Sisterhood President

Libby reads the plaque presented to Steve in appreciation of all he has done at his special breakfast on Sept 10th.

NOTES FROM THE OFFICE:

Just a reminder to our snowbirds to call or email to let us know when you will be leaving the snow behind for the rest of us and heading to warmer climes. Also a reminder that if your bulletin is taking forever to be delivered, you can always check it out on our website -- delivery is instant!

Last month I brought up the idea of a wish list, and lo and behold our first wish is well on its way to being fulfilled. As of this writing we have received donations from Sheila Lash and Congregation Adas Israel to help fund our new sukkah, so we went ahead and ordered it (in anticipation of more donations) so that we would have it in time for Sukkot. If you would like to make a special donation to help cover the cost, we would really appreciate it! Please make a point to come out and see our new sukkah during the holiday. And thank you so much to Sheila and Adas Israel for getting the ball rolling!

TBE News & Notes

Adult Ed News: On Monday, Oct. 2nd, we will have a special guest speaker at our Adult Ed class, Naomi Luft Cameron, who will explain to us the nature of Unitarian Universalism, and also tell us a little of her journey "back to Judaism." This class will take place in the library from 10:30 to noon. Please make an effort to come on time!

Please note that there will be no adult ed class on Columbus Day, Oct. 9th.

Our popular Interfaith discussion group, "Caféine and Conversations" will return on Tuesday, Oct. 3rd, at 2 PM at the Fall River Public Library downstairs meeting room. This month's presenter will be Cantor Shoshana, leading a discussion on "Made in God's Image: What if it's not True?"

We hope that you can join us for the culmination of our Jewish Holiday season! Please see the details on the cover of the bulletin for information about Sukkot, Shemini Atzeret and Simchat Torah (and don't forget to RSVP for the deli dinner!).

We are happy and proud to announce that our own Rabbi Mark has had a book of Jewish theology published! "The Sacred Now: Cultivating Jewish Spiritual Consciousness" (Wipf & Stock) has just been released and can be purchased online via Amazon Books. Mazal Tov, Mark!

Due to the need to prepare this October bulletin to get to you near the beginning of the month, I cannot "report" on all the events that will have taken place in September by the time you get this – Selichot, Rosh Hashanah services, Tashlikh, our Memorial service at the TBE Cemetery, an interfaith "Community Conversations" event held at the Church of the Holy Spirit, Kol Nidrei, Yom Kippur and the Break-Fast – but I hope you were part of many of these! Rabbi Mark and I want to thank all who helped make the September portion of our holidays warm, wonderful and running smoothly through your part in ushering, reading, taking an honor, helping to line up volunteers, donating to the flower fund, making sure that the flowers got to the bima, making sure that our sound system worked, bringing items to the Holiday Food Drive, etc. It is an all-hands-on-deck job! Indeed, it takes a community, and all these events show what a vibrant and caring community we are.

Our next TBE Outing Club hike will be on Thursday, October 19th (all are welcome!). We meet in the vestry at 9:30 (no rsvp required, but you need to come on time). We will be traveling to Simmons Mill Pond Preserve in Little Compton, which is an easy but totally lovely walk – the fall colors should be at their peak! Rain date will be October 26th.

Our "Sunday Afternoon at the Jewish Movies" series returns on Sunday Oct. 22nd at 4 PM. This month we will be showing the timeless classic, "Oh God!" Please see the announcement on page 8.

Finally, we hope that you will all make plans to attend the Rabbi Samuel and Tillie Ruderman Shabbaton Weekend which will entail multiple events taking place across the dates of Friday Oct. 27th to Sunday Oct. 29th. Please see the bulletin cover as well as the box below for further details. There is no charge for any of the events, but we do request that you RSVP by October 20th for any or all of the events. Bring a friend! This is a great time to introduce someone new to our community.

More about Rabbi Alvin

Rabbi Alvin Wainhaus, son of Holocaust survivors, was raised in an Orthodox environment in Boro Park, Brooklyn. A graduate of Brooklyn College with a degree in philosophy, he earned a Master of Education degree from NYU and was ordained at Yeshiva Beth Meir of Tel Aviv in 1972. Rabbi Wainhaus served congregations in Yarmouth, Nova Scotia and in Manhattan prior to becoming Congregation Or Shalom's first and only rabbi in 1981.

"Rabbi Alvin" is also well-known as a professional musician who performed and made numerous recordings with the late Hebrew folk singer Rabbi Shlomo Carlebach. Rabbi Wainhaus frequently incorporates his inspirational and traditional music into his sermons and services. He is fluent in Yiddish, and is a noted lecturer on Yiddish humor.

In addition to all this, Rabbi Alvin is a dear friend of Rabbi Mark's and Cantor Shoshana's who performed Mark's and Shoshana's wedding, presided at the bris of their son Lev, and also at their installation in 2013 at Temple Beth El. We are delighted to welcome Rabbi Wainhaus back to the Temple Beth El community for the Rabbi Samuel and Tillie Ruderman Shabbaton Weekend!

The bulletin of Temple Beth El (USPS-075-340) is published monthly from September to June for $1.00 per year by Temple Beth El, 385 High St., Fall River, MA. Periodicals postage paid at Fall River, MA. POSTMASTERS, send address changes to Temple Beth El, 385 High St., Fall River, MA 02720-3348.

Thank you for your donations received through September 18, 2017

Book Club News

Our September book was "A Piece of the World" by Christina Baker Kline. We all agreed that the book was a "good read". However, something happened as we began to share, and the "good read" became a "better than good read". This is, perhaps, one of those books that "grows on you". The more we shared, the more we appreciated the author's creative genius. Read it. It is worth your time, but be prepared to let it simmer in your mind!

Here are our choices for the next three months.

- Oct 18: "Beneath a Scarlet Sky"
by Mark Sullivan
- Nov 15: "A Man Called Ove: A Novel"
by Fredrik Backman
- Dec. 20: "Before We Were Yours: A Novel"
by Lisa Wingate

TBE Excursion to the Yiddish Book Center, Amherst, MA

Cantor Shoshana has tentatively scheduled an excursion for a group of TBE members to the beautiful Yiddish Book Center in Amherst, MA.

The trip will include a 1 and ½ hour guided tour of the center. There is a $8.00 admission fee (senior fare).

The tentative date for the trip is Wed., Nov 8th. We will meet at the Temple and carpool (to be arranged depending on the number of participants), leaving at 10 AM.

We will stop for a group lunch along the way. The tour begins at 2 PM.

Please call the TBE Office to sign up by October 31st!
