A message from our Spiritual Leader,
Rabbi Mark Elber

We’re nearing the end of summer, which means the High Holidays are just around the corner. Things slowly seem to be returning to some semblance of normal. We’ve resumed holding services in the chapel during the last few months with a Zoom component, which will probably end up being the new normal.

We’re fortunate to live in an era where it is possible to hold Zoom services and classes, so that people can maintain a sense of community despite the isolation imposed by the spread of Covid. Fortunately, enough people have personal computers, laptops, tablets, or smart phones, which enable them to stay connected with friends and family over distances and circumstances that separate us. But there is a palpable difference between services in-person and via Zoom. There are the tangible and intangible components of meeting in-person.

Every community is more than the sum of its individual participants. Each person’s presence affects the overall ambiance in the room and each person’s presence matters. It’s striking how a modest number of people can still create a powerful resonant sound together. I’m sure that makes a significant difference to the people on Zoom who sing along in the privacy of their homes. Each person’s singing inspires the rest of us in a way that cannot be measured, but can be felt. I think that’s true in every avenue of our lives. When we witness someone doing great, heroic, or kind things and being caring and generous, it shows us what people can achieve and, therefore, what we could possibly also do. The atmosphere in which we surround ourselves influences us. That’s why our parents always cared about who our friends were.

After receiving my MFA in poetry from Warren Wilson College back in July 2017, I became part of an email group of other graduates from the program. In the last few days there have been a lot of emails written about rejection, which is so common in the arts, and about perseverance. Even very well-known, successful writers get more rejections than acceptances for their work. What enables some to persevere while others are not able to? I remember the story of Thomas Edison working on, and failing, to create the light bulb. A high school journalist interviewing Edison said: “Mr. Edison, you have failed to produce the light bulb 5,000 times already, don’t you realize it can’t be done?” To which Edison responded, “My dear young man, you don’t understand. I’ve merely eliminated 5,000 possibilities!”

Here’s another incredible Edison anecdote. One day when he was very young, Edison’s teacher gave him a note that the teacher said only Edison’s mother should read. Edison took it home, gave it to his mother and asked her what it said. His mother replied with tears in her eyes that the letter said: “Your son is a genius. This school is too small for him and doesn’t have enough good teachers to train him. Please teach him yourself.” Many years after his mother died and Edison had become the famous inventor that we know him as, he was looking through a closet and came upon the letter that was sent to his mother all those years before. He opened it and was astonished to see that what was actually written was: “Your son is mentally deficient, we won’t let him come to school anymore.”

I believe that the conversations we have with ourselves make a difference in our lives, as does the encouragement and support of others. One of the messages of the High Holidays is that we can change our lives. We are not powerless to change. That doesn’t mean that change is easy, but rather that it’s possible. One of the peaks of the High Holiday services is when we declare that teshuvah, tefilah, and tzedakah can essentially change our lives. Teshuvah is usually translated as “repentance,” though it literally means “returning.” Tefilah means prayer, and tzedakah, though usually translated as “charity,” actually comes from the root that means “justice.” All of these words deserve much more attention than I can give them in this column now.

Teshuvah implies that we can change our lives. What we focus on affects how we perceive things. We are faced with a new year, 5783, beginning on Sunday evening, September 25th. Who knows what it has in store for us? Who could have imagined that we would still be dealing with Covid now, two and a half years after it entered our lives? I still remember, as though it were yesterday, after Purim (our last big public celebration as Covid was making itself felt) which occurred in early March 2020, we were discussing whether we should cancel our Passover festive meal. We were hesitant, thinking the virus might be gone by then. And here we are two and a half years later. It now feels as though the coronavirus will be comparable to the annual flu virus – a regular, but manageable disease.

As I mentioned above, I think that what we focus on affects how we perceive the world around us. With Rosh Hashanah a matter of weeks away, this is a good time to count our blessings, to recognize that with all of the challenges this world throws before us, we still have much to be grateful for. One thing I am grateful for is the warmth, caring, and support of the Temple Beth El community, our wonderful staff of Marie Twomey, Judy Morgenstern, and Henry Parker, and the devotion of the Board of Temple Beth El and particularly our President, Steve Silverman and our Secretary and Sisterhood President, Libby Cohen. On behalf of Shoshana, Lev, and myself, we want to wish you all a Happy, Healthy, and Sweet New Year. Shana tova umetuka!!
President’s Message

I hope you all enjoyed your summer, and had a good place to stay out of the heat!

I have to start by saying that we lost three of our long time members since our last bulletin. Charlotte Fradkin, two years shy of 100, Peter Kane, who was just 79, and our eldest statesman, Charlie Stampler, who was an amazing 107. That is a lot of history between them, and many memories made over all those years. Our sincere condolences to their families. They will be sorely missed.

On a happier note, I would like you to join me in welcoming our newest members, Carol & Rick Da-Rosa from Somerset. We hope to see them at our upcoming High Holidays services. Welcome!

Speaking of the High Holidays, this year we will once again be holding in-person services in the sanctuary, as well as live-streaming the services on Zoom. While we are still treading cautiously, we are also trying to return to some normalcy, so masks are only required for those who are not fully vaccinated. No reservations are required, but we do recommend that you leave your mahzor (prayer book) and tallis if you have one at your seat if you plan to attend on subsequent days. Take advantage of our spacious sanctuary and spread out. We will not hold a breakfast, but we will have water and snacks in the foyer after the end of Yom Kippur.

Lastly, we will finally be using our new prayer books! If you plan to follow along at home and would like your own copy of the mahzor, they are available on Amazon - just search for “Mahzor Lev Shalem.” Be sure to choose the one that says “For Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.” Click on “See all buying options”. The second option is a new book for $54.97 and free shipping. If you live locally you may come to the office and check one out, but it must be returned after Yom Kippur.

I wish you all a happy, healthy and prosperous New Year, with better times to come. Shana Tova!

Steve Silverman
President

Sisterhood President’s Message

We are now preparing to usher in the Jewish New Year, 5783, which begins on Sunday, September 25th at sundown and ends at nightfall on Tuesday, September 27th. This is when we commemorate the beginning of the world, and the creation of Adam and Eve. This is the holiest time of the year. We repent and atone. It culminates on Yom Kippur, known as the Day of Atonement, which begins at sunset on October 4th and ends at nightfall on October 5th. May all of you have a happy, healthy and a sweet New Year!

I can’t believe that summer is coming to a close in a few short weeks. Myself, I hate to see it end. The days of beaches, pools and barbecues will be put on hold till next year. I hope you all were able to enjoy this special time.

Sisterhood enjoyed a wonderful luncheon at the Old Grist Mill back in July. It was a great day of catching up and socializing. The food was good and the company was super fine. Those who were unable to attend were sorely missed. Maybe next time. I want to thank my sidekicks, Elaine Weiss Reback and Marie Twomey for all they did in helping me put this together.

Sisterhood will be taking care of the flowers in the Temple for the holidays. Anyone that wants to make a donation towards them, please make out a check payable to Sisterhood of Temple Beth El, and mail it in to the office. You will be acknowledged in a future bulletin.

So, until next month, be well and safe. Hope to see you in the Temple for the upcoming holidays.

Libby Cohen
Sisterhood President

High Holiday Seat Fees
As a part of the precautions we must take for the high holidays, all non-members must have a ticket in order to attend any of the High Holiday services. Our tickets are $25 per person per holiday for the Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services, and must be purchased in advance. Please call or email the office by September 15th to reserve your tickets. Thank you for passing this information along to any non-members you think may attend.

Cemetery Headstone Cleaning
It's that time again -- our cemetery landscaper, Tommy Fillipovich, has once again offered to pressure-wash the headstones and foot markers using a biodegradable cleanser that won't damage the stones or the surrounding grass. The results are impressive, with the headstones looking amazingly like new.

As setting up the equipment is time-consuming, Tommy has offered to do all of the pressure-washing in one day for a discounted price. Headstones will be cleaned for $60 each, foot markers for $15 each. In order to take advantage of the discount, we must receive your check no later than October 1st. For those who miss the deadline, the cost for cleaning a headstone will be $100, a foot marker will be $25, and they will be cleaned at our landscaper’s convenience. We plan to offer the discount day each fall.

If you have any questions about this service, please call the Temple office at (508) 674-3529.

TBE News & Notes

As we approach the Yamim Nora’im (Days of Awe) this year, many of us have been slowly moving towards an “almost normal” kind of life again, although the pandemic is still visible in our rearview mirrors. Rabbi Mark and I hope that as many of you as possible will feel able to attend our High Holiday services in person (see details on the cover); we are so longing to see everyone together again!

Our short service of Selichot can be a great way of getting emotionally and spiritually prepared for the High Holy days. We are happy this year to return to the pre-pandemic custom of inviting folks into our home on Walnut Street for this short (approximately 30 minute) service, but we will also make it available on Zoom – the TBE office will send out a link as we get near to the date (Sat. night, Sept. 17th, beginning at 8 PM).

On Sunday afternoon, Sept. 11th at 2 PM in the TBE vestry, we will return to our Jewish film viewing with the classic Streisand film The Way We Were. Please see page 8 for more information.

This summer a select few of us enjoyed TBE Nature Walks at Mt. Hope Farm in Bristol, RI, and at Sachuest Point National Wildlife Refuge, and as of this writing I am looking forward to our last summer nature walk at Allens Pond MA Audubon Sanctuary (on 8/31). For September, since we will be post-Labor Day (when the parking is free), I am proposing a walk on Goosewing (aka “South Shore”) Beach on Wednesday Sept. 14th, meeting in the parking lot at 10 AM. To get there, look up directions to: South Shore Beach, S Shore Rd, Little Compton, RI 02837.

A big thank you to Libby Cohen for having organized the first Sisterhood event in so long – a wonderful luncheon at the Old Gristmill Tavern in Seekonk. It was great to be back together again!

High Holiday Guidelines

Once again this year we will be offering our High Holiday services both in-person in the sanctuary and live-streamed on Zoom.

To continue to do our best to keep Covid-19 out of the temple, we have some guidelines for those attending services in-person. Everyone is encouraged to wear a mask, but those who are unvaccinated (or not fully vaccinated) are required to wear masks at all times while in the temple building. And it goes without saying that if you have ANY symptoms of illness, please stay at home.

Please spread out in the sanctuary so you are socially distanced from other families in all directions, and return to the same seat if you come to services on subsequent days. You may leave your machzor (High Holiday prayer book) and tallis, at your seat.

As with last year, the services will be shortened, and alas, no break-fast at the end of Yom Kippur. We will, however, have water and snacks in the foyer at the end of Yom Kippur.

We will hold Tashlikh on the afternoon of the 1st Day of Rosh Hashanah. We meet at the Cove Restaurant parking lot at 4 PM; if you have not been able to come to services in person, but would like to hear the shofar blown in person, this is your chance! Rabbi Mark will bring his shofar to this event.

As for the holidays of Sukkot, Shemini Atzeret (with Yizkor), Erev Simchat Torah, and Simchat Torah morning, please refer to the cover of this bulletin for the dates and times. We plan to have all of these services both in-person in the chapel and on Zoom. Please check your email for information about these services and for the Zoom links.

Thank you for your patience and understanding as we continue to make our way safely through this new world.

Temple Family

• Our sincere condolences to the families of Charlotte Fradkin, Peter Kane and Charlie Stampler.
• Welcome to our newest members, Carol and Rick DaRosa!

Our Sisterhood has decided to pay for the High Holiday flowers this year without a special appeal. That said, if you would like to make a donation to the Flower Fund to offset the cost, Sisterhood would be most appreciative. Please note “Flower Fund” on your check and send it to the Temple office. Include a note if you would like to add a “Memoriam” for the October bulletin. Thank you in advance for your support, and many thanks to Elaine Weiss Reback for organizing the whole effort.

Bits & Bobs

Thank you to Bill and Jeff Chebot for covering all of our services while Rabbi Mark and Cantor Shoshana were away on vacation.

Friday night services are starting to draw a small crowd...and we would love to draw a bigger one! Join us in the chapel for live services at 5:30 pm.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON AT THE JEWISH MOVIES!

Reunited after eight years, outspoken Jewish leftist Katie Morosky and military officer Hubbell Gardiner fall in love despite their differences. However, as Hubbell prioritizes his screenwriting career, the Hollywood blacklist forces them apart. After reuniting again over a decade later, the couple must decide whether their love is strong enough to keep them together.

Barbra Streisand and Robert Redford star as Morosky and Gardiner in The Way We Were (120 minutes), the classic 1973 romantic drama. The film won Academy Awards for Best Score and Best Song.

Please wear a mask if not fully vaccinated.
Hello all,

It is with sadness that I write to let you all know we will be moving to Pawtucket and will not be able to stay involved with Temple Beth El.

Glenn, Rafi, Lev, and I have all grown so much in our time as members of the synagogue. We were honored to be the first brit milah (times two!) in many years. TBE was an emotional anchor during the COVID pandemic.

We wish all the best to the entire congregation.

Great love to everyone,
Steve Sherman

Fall River United Jewish Appeal

Greetings for the New Year, 5783

Rosh Hashanah is a time of beginning and Jews look forward to an opportunity to start again. In so doing, we also take stock of what we have accomplished. We have rescued Jews from distressed lands, resettling them in Israel and America. We care for the vulnerable here in our Fall River community, in Israel and around the world. We revitalize Jewish life throughout our global Jewish community. We take on the obligation of Tikkun Olam – trying to repair the world.

For the New Year - a new beginning – we must intensify our efforts. We are part of a sacred Jewish trust to continue to build, strengthen and care for our Jewish people around the world. Let’s keep that trust.

In this spirit, the Fall River United Jewish Appeal Officers, Directors, and Campaign Officers wish everyone a healthful, joyous, and peaceful New Year. L’Shana Tova. And a special thank you to Iris Katzman and Rick Schwartz who have taken on the role of Vice President and Treasurer respectively. Iris has stepped up to replace the late Sumner Alpert (who in turn had replaced her beloved husband, Harold). Rick has agreed to be the new treasurer, to replace the late Charlie Stampler, who we were proud to have on our board for decades, and who was possibly the oldest board officer in the world! We are sure Rick has all the nuts and bolts to handle the Treasurer’s job with ease.

Sayre A. Litchman, President
Sidney Winokoor, Vice President
Iris Katzman, Vice President
Richard Schwartz, Treasurer
Atty. Kenneth Littman, Secretary
Sayre A. Litchman, General Campaign Chairman
